

Key Qualities of an Effective Mentor

Availability

Good mentors always make time in their schedules to provide professional guidance.

Constructive Feedback

The ability to provide constructive feedback which is tailored based on your professional goals and needs is a valuable quality in a mentor.

Honesty and Integrity

A good and ethical mentor will uphold all their promises and commitment with utmost integrity.

Confidence and Ability to Motivate

Confidence is key for a great mentor, and they will bring that confidence with them to motivate their peers further.

Resilience and Adaptability

Look for a mentor who displays great resilience against various challenges and can adapt to different situations.