

Key Points in your Social Work Performance Review

Social Work Proficiency

You will likely be asked on your knowledge and competency in the Social Work field. Ensure that you're up to date with the latest trends and practices happening within this year.

Communication Skills

The performance evaluation will question on how effective your communication skills are as it is vital in a field that involves speaking to various parties with different points of view and differences.

Organisation Skills

It is good to reflect upon your organisation skills as this will show how efficient your time management is in order to be able to complete reports and manage multiple cases.