

Getting Started: Lessons for newly qualified Social Workers

Have a clear-cut objective

Envision and list out the key objectives you wish to accomplish after 3-5 years working in the Social Worker industry. This will help keep you on track and work towards success.

Get to know local resources

Accept the fact that you will need help from time to time. Learn about the available services in your local area and take note of emergency numbers and addresses.

Develop career building relationships

Having the support of a mentor and like-minded colleagues will help fast track your Social Worker career progression.

Don't fear innovation

One way to ensure that you are on the path to a satisfying Social Worker career is by exploring with creative and innovative solutions to problems.

